JOB (Apprentices' Association), the Ministry of Education, the MBO Council and other organisations have reached agreements to improve education (Work Agenda MBO). Each vocational school must make arrangements to implement these quality agreements over the next four years. The subject council must agree to the school's quality agreements, otherwise the agreements will not be approved. If these agreements are approved, the school receives money to implement them. <https://www.jobmbo.nl/voorstellen-voor-de-studentenraad/>
